

Dear ASEA-UNINET colleague,

It is our pleasure to draw your attention to the Bernd Rode Award 2019, which will be awarded in February 2019 during the 17th ASEA-UNINET Plenary Meeting (February 22nd-25th) at the University of Danang, Vietnam.

Applications are now accepted!

Please share the Call for Award with your colleagues (conducting or participating in ASEA-UNINET projects) and within your institution.

The Bernd Rode Award is granted to outstanding scientific and higher education collaborations between European and South-East-Asian universities in the framework of ASEA-UNINET and will be granted during the 17th ASEA-UNINET Plenary Meeting in February 2019. The award is given every 18 months in three different categories (junior, senior, project-based).

The award is named after Bernd Michael Rode, an eminent Austrian researcher and founder of the Austrian-South-East-Asian Academic University Network (ASEA-UNINET). The Award is associated with financial support up to a maximum of 5.000 euros to enhance and extend the research possibilities in the context of projects backed by ASEA-UNINET (e.g. travel expenses, research stay).

Basic requirement to submit an application for the Bernd Rode Award 2019: The applicant has participated in a finished or still ongoing ASEA-UNINET research project in the past 5 years. This project was conducted in cooperation between at least one Austrian ASEA-UNINET member University and at least one ASEA-UNINET member University from South-East-Asia and has been at least partially funded by ASEA-UNINET. Furthermore the project has already produced results that can be presented (e.g. joint publication).

The funds received from the Bernd Rode Award 2019 can be exclusively reinvested in future ASEA-UNINET research projects and collaborations.

For further information regarding the guidelines, submissions and important dates please see below and have a look at the attached call for award.

Submissions are to be sent by email to office@asea-uninet.org until November

30th 2018 and should include the following documents:

• Junior and Senior submissions:

- Short description of the research work conducted in the framework of ASEA-UNINET (about 5 pages)
- Role of ASEA-UNINET in the work of the applicant

- CV and publication list (plus the applicants' best publications as full pdf-version (max.5)
- The three most important scientific or artistic contributions of the applicant (max. 200 Words)

- Project-based submissions:

- Short description of the research project conducted in the framework of ASEA-UNINET (about 5 pages)
- Role of ASEA-UNINET as facilitator
- CV and list of publications of the project team
- Scientific and/or societal education results and publications arising from the project

If you should have any further questions please don't hesitate to contact me.

We are looking forward to your submission,

Warm greetings,

Katrin Detter

Katrin Detter, MA

Vienna University of Technology

Institute of Software Technology and Interactive Systems

Favoritenstr 9-11, A-1040 Vienna, Austria

Mail: office-asea-uninet@tuwien.ac.at